Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Element 1: The school leader ensures clear and measurable goals are established and focused on critical needs regarding improving overall student achievement at the school level.

Sample Evidences

- Written goals are established as a percentage of students who will score at a proficient or higher level on state assessments or benchmark assessments
- School-wide achievement goals are posted and discussed regularly at faculty and staff gatherings
- Written goals are established for eliminating the achievement gap for all students
- Written goals address the most critical and severe achievement deficiencies
- Written timelines contain specific benchmarks for each goal including individual(s) responsible for the goal
- Scales are in place to chart student and school progress towards meeting the standards
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students of differing ethnicities
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how goals eliminate differences in achievement for students at different socioeconomic levels, English language learners, and students with disabilities
- When asked, faculty and staff can describe the school-wide achievement goals
- When asked, faculty and staff can identify the school’s most critical needs goals

I(2): The school leader ensures clear and measurable goals are established and focused on critical needs regarding improving achievement of individual students within the school.	The school leader attempts to ensure that written achievement goals that are clear, measurable, and focused, are established for each student, but does not complete the task or does so partially OR the school leader does not attempt to do so.	The school leader ensures each student has written achievement goals that are clear, measurable, and focused on appropriate needs.	The school leader ensures each student has written achievement goals that are clear, measurable, and focused on appropriate needs AND regularly monitors that teachers and students have understanding of individual student goals.	The school leader ensures adjustments are made or new methods are utilized so that all faculty and students sufficiently understand the goals.

Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on Student Achievement

Element 3: The school leader ensures that data are analyzed, interpreted, and used to regularly monitor progress toward school achievement goals.

Sample Evidences

- Reports, graphs, and charts are available for overall student achievement
- Student achievement is examined from the perspective of value-added results
- Results from multiple types of assessments are regularly reported and used (e.g. benchmark, common assessments)
- Reports, graphs, and charts are regularly updated to track growth in student achievement
- Achievement data for student subgroups within the school are routinely analyzed
- School leadership teams regularly analyze school growth data
- Data briefings are conducted at faculty meetings
- When asked, faculty and staff can describe the different types of reports available to them
- When asked, faculty and staff can explain how data are used to track growth in student achievement

Domain II: Continuous Improvement of Instruction

Element 1: The school leader provides a clear vision as to how instruction should be addressed in the school.

Sample Evidences

- A written document articulating the school-wide model of instruction is in place
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their professional learning communities, faculty and/or department meetings
- Professional development opportunities are provided for new teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- Professional development opportunities are provided for all teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- New initiatives are prioritized and limited in number to support the instructional model
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their informal conversations
- When asked, teachers can describe the major components of the school-wide model of instruction
- When asked, teachers can explain how strategies in the instructional framework promote learning for the school's diverse population

Element 5: The school leader ensures that teachers are provided with job-embedded professional development that is directly related to their instructional growth goals.

Sample Evidences

- Online professional development courses and resources are available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- The school leader tracks teacher participation in professional development activities
- Teacher-led professional development is available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- Instructional coaching is available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- Data are collected linking the effectiveness of professional development to the improvement of teacher practices
- Data are available supporting deliberate practice is improving teacher performance
- When asked, teachers can describe how the professional development supports their attainment of instructional growth goals

The school leader attempts to ensure that all students have access to the courses and classes that directly address the essential elements of the curriculum, but does not complete the task or does so partially OR the school leader does not attempt to do so.	The school leader ensures that all students have access to the courses and classes that directly address the essential elements of the curriculum.	The school leader ensures that all students have access to the courses and classes that directly address the essential elements of the curriculum AND monitors the extent to which those courses and classes utilize instructional strategies that most strongly increase their chances of learning the essential elements.	The school leader intervenes with teachers whose students do not have adequate access to essential elements and instructional strategies that most strongly increase their chances of learning the essential elements.

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 1: The school leader ensures that teachers have opportunities to observe and discuss effective teaching.

Sample Evidences

- Teachers have opportunities to engage in instructional rounds
- Teachers have opportunities to view and discuss video-based examples of exemplary teaching
- Teachers have regular times to meet and discuss effective instructional practices (e.g. lesson study, professional learning communities)
- Teachers have opportunities to interact about effective teaching via technology
- Instructional practices are regularly discussed at faculty and department meetings
- Video segments of instructional practices are regularly viewed and discussed at faculty and department meetings
- Procedures are in place for scheduling teachers to observe and discuss effective instructional practices
- Data are available to document that teachers who participate in observational rounds improve their pedagogy
- When asked, teachers report their participation in observing other teachers results in individual self-reflection and pedagogical growth

The school leader ensures that teachers have regular opportunities to interact regarding effective instructional practices and observe specific examples of effective teaching virtually or in-person AND monitors the extent to which teachers who actively participate in these opportunities improve their pedagogy.	The school leader intervenes and supports teachers who do not actively participate in opportunities to interact regarding effective instructional practices.

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 2: The school leader ensures that teachers have formal roles in the decision-making process regarding school initiatives.

Sample Evidences

- Teachers are advised of the specific types of decisions in which they will have direct input
- Data-gathering techniques are in place to collect information from teachers
- Notes and reports are in place that describe how teacher input was used when making specific decisions
- Electronic tools are utilized to collect and report teacher opinions regarding specific decisions (e.g. online surveys)
- Groups of teachers are selected and utilized to provide input regarding specific decisions
- Teacher leaders are enabled to proactively initiate, plan, implement and monitor projects
- The school leadership team has critical roles in facilitating school initiatives
- Data are available to show input is used by the school leader
- When asked, teachers report they feel their input is valued and used by the school leader

Domain IV: Cooperation and Collaboration

Element 4: The school leader ensures that teachers and staff have formal ways to provide input regarding the optimal functioning of the school and delegates responsibilities appropriately.

Sample Evidences

- Data collection systems are in place to collect opinion data from teachers and staff regarding the optimal functioning of the school
- Data are archived and reports regularly generated regarding these data
- The manner in which data are used is made transparent
- The school improvement team provides input to the leader regarding the school improvement plan
- Appropriate faculty and staff are identified and mentored for succession planning and provided appropriate growth opportunities
- Faculty and staff are assisted with career planning and continuing educational opportunities
- Teacher leaders and other faculty are empowered to share in the leadership of the school
- Potential leaders are identified and guided in career development
- The school leader can cite examples of where teacher input has resulted in effective change at the school
- The school leader demonstrates ongoing mentoring of teacher leaders

- Data are archived and reports regularly generated regarding these data
- The manner in which these data are used is made transparent
- Data are available to show that input from the school’s diverse population is valued and used
- An interactive website is provided for students, parents, and the community to provide input
- Appropriate social networking technologies (e.g. Twitter, Facebook) is utilized to involve students, parents, and community
- Focus group meetings with students and parents are routinely scheduled
- The school leader hosts or speaks at community/business luncheons
- The school leader can explain how the use of input from the school community has resulted in improved functioning of the school
- The school leader can demonstrate how data gathered from subpopulations at the school are incorporated in school planning
- When asked, students, parents, and community members report their input is valued and used by the school leader to better the functioning of the school

Domain V: School Climate

Element 1: The school administrator is recognized as the leader of the school who continually improves his or her professional practice.

Sample Evidences

- A written annual growth plan is in place to address how the school leader will address strengths and weaknesses
- Professional development activities consistent with the leader’s growth plan have been identified
- Evidence of leadership initiatives is available
- Adherence to district and state policies and procedures is evident
- The school leader has demonstrated his or her ability to be a problem solver
- The school leader has identified mentors and regularly interacts with them
- When asked, faculty and staff identify the school administrator as the leader of the school
- When asked, faculty and staff describe the school leader as uncompromising in regards to raising student achievement
- When asked, faculty and staff describe the school leader as effectively communicating those non-negotiable factors that have an impact on student achievement
